KILLED WIFE AND SELF.

Margaret Morehiser was heading over the bed where her seven-months-old baby lay last night when without a word of warning her husband, Charles H. Morehiser, drew a razor from his pocket and slashed her throat from ear to ear. From the gaping wound the blood gushed forth and literally baptized the infant as she lay there laughing and cooing. The mother turned and ran into an adjoining room, where she fell dead at her father's feet. The crime was committed shortly before 9 o'clock last night at the home of Patrick Ford, the old gatekeeper at the Whitney avenue entrance to the Soldiers' Home grounds in Washington.

Morehiser saw his wife fall and then, closing his razor, left the house, ran to the grocery store of John Green, on Marshall street, where he cut his own throat. Friends had him taken to Freedman's Hospital, where he died about 11 o'clock. Morehiser was 31 years of age and for the past month or two weeks had been an inmate of the Soldiers' Home. He married Margaret Ford, the 20-year-old daughter of the old gatekeeper, in October, 1899. They eloped to this city and were married by a justice of the peace. When they returned home her parents were greatly incensed and insisted they should be remarried by a clergyman. Rev. Borryman Green, of this city, performed the second ceremony. The two did not live happily together and had separated. He had declared that if she left him he would kill both her and the baby.

Shortly before 9 o'clock last night he went to the lodge and asked to see his wife. Mrs. Ford, his mother-in-law, told him that he could not come in the house because he had treated his wife cruelly. He did enter, however, and talked with his wife for a while. Then he killed her.

Under the heading of submarine boats the Admiralty report says: "Five of the type invented by Holland have been ordered, the first of which should be delivered next autumn. What the future value of these boats may be in naval warfare can only be a matter of conjecture. Experiments with these boats will assist the Admiralty in assessing their true value. The question of their employment must be studied in all its developments, and their mechanism carefully watched in this country."

During the year arrangements will be made with nearly all the great steamship companies by which their finest vessels will be held at the disposition of the Admiralty for employment as armored cruisers when required. To the lines previously engaged have been added the Orient, Royal Mail and the Pacific Companies. Eighteen of the largest and swiftest passenger steamers of these lines will receive an annual subvention. Thirty other steamers have been placed at the disposition of the Admiralty without further subsidy.

The Republicans Ejected.—Wheeling, W. Va., March 13.—The city building is under martial law today. The republican officials terms expired this morning and they refused to vacate on the ground that the new officials were not legally elected and their bonds had not been approved. Under instructions from the mayor Chief of Police Ritz refused every office, forcibly ejecting the officials and installing their democratic successors in their places. Today each office is being guarded by police, and no person known to be identified with the republican organization is permitted to enter. The ex-officials refuse to make known the combinations on the safe and vaults, and the city business is at a standstill. The matter will be taken to the courts.

MARYLAND LEGISLATURE.—The House of Delegates yesterday by a vote of 55 to 28, passed the election bill, five democrats voting with the republicans against it. The Senate held three sessions and discussed the bill both day and night. All the speeches were made against it by republicans, except one in its favor by Senator Bryan, who said he helped to draft the bill. In his speech he declared that it was Mark Hanna's money which carried the State for McKinley last year. A motion made by Senator Puzal to strike out the enacting clause was lost by a party vote of 13 to 11. Senator Applegate not being present.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Emanuel Lykes and Ida Seymour, both of Fairfax county.

TO MAKE ADVERTISEMENTS EFFECTIVE.—Writers for the advertising periodicals evidently regard the preparation of advertisements as one of the most difficult of arts. Yet the business man who knows all about his own establishment need have no trouble about making his announcements effective. It is only necessary that he shall speak through the newspaper as he would speak to a prospective customer in person. An advertisement cannot fail of its purpose if it shall set forth in simple words and readable type the facts which it is intended to make known.

FOREIGN NEWS.—The foreign ministers at Pekin practically decided against demanding any more heads of Chinamen, but will present the names of 96 minor officials for trial for complicity in the Boxer outrages.

Field Marshal von Waldersee reports having driven the Chinese from the vicinity of Suifu Pass. Official circles in Berlin are puzzled as to the cause of the Chinese activity around the Great Wall.

The Berlin war office has received the following dispatch from Count von Waldersee: "Pekin, March 12.—In the fight west of Suifu Pass we had only one slightly wounded. The Chinese left 250 dead on the field. Our cavalry, with four quick-firers, pursued the Chinese for twenty miles. A battalion resided at Fen-Ping and westward from the great wall in order to prevent a return of the Chinese troops."

Mr. Balfour stated in the House of Commons yesterday that the government declined to furnish any information regarding negotiations with General Botha. Mr. Kruger ignores the reported surrender negotiations.

The London Daily News makes the following statement: "We understand that the government has modified the unconditional surrender policy. We believe Lord Kitchener has been authorized to offer amnesty to both the Boers and the Boer leaders, except where treachery is clearly proved. Cape rebels only are to be punished by disfranchisement."

The motion for an inquiry concerning the retirement of Major General Colville was defeated in the House of Commons by a vote of 263 to 148.

At London the Admiralty Court awarded the German steamer Valencia £8,000 for assisting the Cunard liner Carinthia.

One man was shot dead and three others wounded in bread riots in Ripoli, Spain.

San Francisco Cook, late husband of Jennie C. Cline, left an estate of $8,000,000.

E. W. Grove's Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets the remedy that cures a cold in one day

Prof. Ivson, of Louisiana, Md., suffered terribly from neuralgia of the stomach and indigestion for thirteen years and after the doctors failed to cure him they fed him on morphine. A friend advised the use of Kofol Dyspepsia Cure and after taking a few bottles of it he says, "It has cured me entirely. I can't say too much for Kofol Dyspepsia Cure." It digests what you eat.

DINNER TO COLONEL MOSBY.—Colonel John S. Mosby was the principal guest at a banquet given in his honor by F. R. Pemberton, son of the Confederate General John C. Pemberton, at the Waldorf-Astoria New York, Monday night. Colonel Mosby comes from Virginia, but he is at present stationed at California, where he looks after the legal interests of the Southern Pacific Railroad. The guests gathered in the State apartment, among those present being ex-Judge Roger A. Pryor, Randolph Guggenheimer, Patrick Cullen, John B. Carle, William McCade, Commander W. F. Owens of the Confederate Veteran Camp of New York, Major John Byrne, Dr. W. Pryor, E. S. Whitman, John W. Munson and Captain Peter A. Franklin, the last two being the only two New York men who served with Mosby in his campaign. No outsiders listened to the toasts and speeches, the banquet being a private social affair. Colonel Mosby is in the city on business connected with the railroad, and is the guest of Mr. Pemberton. A number of other entertainments in his honor have been arranged by his friends in New York.—[N. Y. Times.]

It is understood the administration will prepare a treaty abrogating or modifying the Clayton-Bulwer convention before Congress again assembles.

Yesterday morning, while crossing the Potomac river at Little Orleans, Md., Miss Mary Callan and the ferryman, John McDaniel, were drowned.

Pearls Found in Vermont.—Everyone is talking about the "Green Mountain Pearls." Did you know that they cure liver troubles, constipation, bad digestion, nausea, dull headache, dizziness and foul breath? There never was a pill sold which acted so quickly and gently and they don't gripe one bit. A trial is all we ask—we know what the result will be.
